4. Subject of the Contract

This Agreement is for the purpose of the assignment for consideration by the Company to the User of an amount of Hashing Power so-called Tera-Hash, the collection and transfer of an amount of BTC resulting from the BTC Extraction produced by the aforesaid Hashing Power from the date of signing of the Agreement to the Term as well as the sale of the Digital Product and HLT Token created by the Company (the "Assignment").

Pursuant to this Contract:

- (a) The Society:
 - (i) does not transfer to the User any ownership rights with respect to the Miner or any right, title or interest in the Technology;
 - (ii) does not grant the User any license, express or implied, or any copyright, patent or any other intellectual property right relating to the Technology;
 - (iii) will transfer to the User an amount of BTC resulting from the Extraction of BTC time by time varying and dependent on the amount of Hashing Power possessed by the User;
 - (iv) will not in any way transfer possession of the Hashing Power and Miner to the User;
 - (v) may determine, at its discretion, the allocation and use of the Hashing Power subject to Assignment reserving the right, at any time, to determine at which Miners to use the Hashing Power;
- (b) The User:
 - (i) mandates the Company to manage on its own behalf the Hashing Power subject to Assignment;
 - (ii) acknowledges that it will have no rights in connection with the management and use of the Miner and/or the Mining Pool at which it allocates Hashing Power.

As part of the Assignment and at the end of each month of the term of the Agreement, the Company agrees to transfer to the User an amount of BTC resulting from the Mining of BTC equal to a certain percentage of the consideration paid in connection with the purchase of the Hashing Power as set forth below in the summary table in Article 6.2 of the Agreement (the "Mining Credit").

5. Contract Duration

The Assignment will be effective as of the date the Agreement is signed and for the following year (the "Term").

6. Obligations of the Parties

6.1. Miner installation and management

In order to enable the production and management of Hashing Power, the User delegates the activity of installing and managing the Miner or portions thereof to the Company.

The Company warrants that it will independently and at its own expense, through the use of qualified personnel, install the Miner in order to enable the Assignment on the terms and conditions set forth in the Order Form.

6.2. Divestment Consideration

The Company will make the Assignment against payment by the User of a one-time fee, in Euro or virtual currency as from time to time indicated through the Platform on the relevant pages of the individual available products related to the offered Mining services (the "Fee").

It is understood that the information indicated on the Platform on the relevant pages of the individual available products related to the Mining services offered may be, from time to time, subject to change as indicated on the Platform in relation to potential costs and charges related to the purchase of the product and/or items ancillary to the same.

Except as otherwise provided in the General Terms and Conditions, the Consideration includes all costs incurred by the Company as part of the Assignment relating to, but not limited to, hosting, repairs to the Miner, and the cost of electricity required to power the Mining activity.

6.3. Refund

On the Termination Date, the Company by way of repayment of the invested capital and any return related to the acquisition of the Hashing Power shall transfer to the section called "MyBalance" of the User account alternatively an amount of Euros or Tokens determined in accordance with the conditions set forth equal to the Hashing Power Consideration paid to the Company under the Assignment (the "Repayment").

It remains in the sole discretion of the Company to identify the currency (Euro or Token) with which to make the Reimbursement in favor of the User without the User ever being able to contest the choice made by the Company or raise any exception in this regard.

6.4. Transfer, use and airdrop of the Digital Product

Within the scope of the Assignment and on the date of signing the Contract, the Company will grant the User the right to redeem an amount of SWA Token and HLT Token based on the relevant information indicated from time to time on the Platform on the relevant pages of the individual available products related to the offered Mining services, as well as the Euro countervalue of the Token and HLT token indicated on the Company's exchange platform on the date of signing the Contract.

Except as otherwise provided below, User's use of the aforementioned Digital Product and HLT Token shall be governed respectively by the Terms of Sale and White Paper attached to this Agreement as well as in each additional document referred to herein.

As of the effective date of the Contract:

- (a) Tokens allocated to the User under this Agreement may not be transferred from the User Wallet or Wallet Swaggy to another wallet for a period equal to 1 (one) year (the "SWA Lock Period"), beginning on the date of signing this Agreement;
- (b) HLT Tokens allocated to the User pursuant to this Agreement may not be transferred from the User Wallet or Wallet Swaggy to another wallet for a period equal to 10 (ten) months (the "HLT Lock Period"), commencing on the date of transfer of the HLT Token as set forth in the White Paper.

At the end of the HLT Lock Period and for the next 8 (eight) months, the User may freely dispose of the HLT Tokens pro rata.

Except as otherwise provided in relation to HLT Tokens, at the end of the respective SWA Lock Period and HLT Lock Period, the User may freely dispose of the SWA Tokens and HLT Tokens.

Beginning on the sixteenth day of the effective date of the Agreement and until the Term, the Company will transfer to the User free of charge on a weekly basis a pro rata amount of Tokens equal to 7% per annum, which will be counted only on Tokens purchased with the product, as of the effective date of the Agreement ("Airdrop").

The User may freely dispose of Tokens received free of charge under the Airdrop.

6.5. Miner's duty of care

In order to enable the Assignment and until the Term, the Company agrees:

- (a) To not use the Miner to pursue illegal purposes or commit illegal activities;
- (b) To use the Miner according to its specific intended use and in compliance with the requirements and technical/operational instructions in the manuals;
- (c) To place the Miner in suitable locations free from specific risks concerning safety and accident prevention;
- (d) Not to alter the original state of the Miner;
- (e) To carry out regular cleaning of all parts of the Miner through the use of specialized technical personnel from the Mining Pool.

7. Full Service Maintenance

7.1. "Full Service" Maintenance Service

Within the scope of the Contract, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, the Company shall offer the so-called "Full Service Maintenance Service" referred to in this Article to the User free of charge.

7.2. Contents, conditions and limits of usability of Full Service Maintenance Service.

Full Service Maintenance includes any ordinary and extraordinary maintenance work carried out by the Company, whatever the origin and cause of the failure, aimed at restoring the normal functionality of the Miner such as, for example, in the event that as a result of the failure (or theft), it is necessary to proceed to the replacement of one or more of the components listed below: transformer, boards, UPS batteries, PC board, touch screen.

7.3. Deliverability of Full Service Maintenance Service through other group companies and timing of delivery

The User acknowledges and agrees that the Company may, in its sole discretion, provide the Full Service Maintenance Service through other group companies or third parties.

The Company undertakes to carry out the interventions related to the Full Service Maintenance within a maximum period of 30 (thirty) working days starting from the date of the Company's knowledge of the malfunction of the Miner.

7.4. Full Service Maintenance Exclusion Cases.

The Company shall have the right not to provide Full Service Maintenance Service in case of:

- (a) failure related to components other than those constituting original Miner equipment;
- (b) destruction of the Miner (meaning the serious failure extended to the major components of the Miner that are not repairable by preserving the Miner's original identity).

Upon the occurrence of one or more of the cases of exclusion of Full Service Maintenance Service referred to in this Article, the Company, in its sole discretion, shall have the right not to provide Full Service Maintenance Service and give written notice to the User.

8. Theft, loss and destruction of the Miner

In the event of theft, loss or destruction of the Miner, the Company shall send written notice by email to the User aimed at informing the User in relation to the event (the "Negative Event").

If the Negative Event is due to the wrongful act of the Mining Pool or a third party, together with the aforementioned notice, the Company shall forward a copy of the complaint filed with the competent authorities.

9. BTC Extraction Credit

Through his or her account on the Company's website, the User will be able to:

- (a) View the Mining Credit generated at the end of each Contract effective month via the "My Balance" section of the website;
- (b) through the "Transfer" function, transmit to the Company a request to transfer the aforesaid amount of BTC, or part thereof, to its own wallet in accordance with the provisions under the General Conditions (the "Transfer Request").

As of the first accounting date of the Mining Crediting, the User shall have the option at any time to notify the Company of the Transfer Request to their Swaggy Wallet or User Wallet.

Swaggy Wallet Holders

From the first accounting date of the Mining Accreditation pursuant to the General Conditions, the User holding the Swaggy Wallet may transmit the Transfer Request to the Company in order to receive, at no cost or charge, the relevant BTC.

It is prohibited for the User who owns the Swaggy Wallet to transmit the Transfer Request in favor of a wallet other than the Swaggy Wallet.

The general terms of service of the Swaggy Wallet signed between the Parties shall apply to the use of the Swaggy Wallet.

User Wallet Holders

From the first accounting date of the Mining Accreditation under the General Conditions, the User Wallet holder may transmit the Transfer Request to the Company in order to receive the relevant BTC.

In order to execute the aforementioned Transfer Request, the Company will apply to the transfer of BTCs to the User Wallet the fees provided for the execution of Bitcoin blockchain transactions as well as a fee for the execution of the transaction according to the Company's fee schedule (available in the "Fees and Limits" section on the Company's website).

The terms of service signed between the User and the third party provider apply to the use of the User Wallet.

10. Prohibition of Contract Assignment

10.1. Prohibition of Contract Assignment

The User may not assign the Contract and/or the rights and/or obligations arising therefrom to third parties, except with the prior written authorization of the Company, including through corporate transactions such as, but not limited to, assignment, lease, usufruct, transfer of business and/or business unit, spin-off, merger.

10.2. Hashing Power Prohibition.

The User is not authorized to assign the Hashing Power to any third party and shall continue until the Term to assume full and exclusive responsibility to the Company for the proper performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

The User is also not authorized to sublet to third parties or otherwise alienate or lease or assign the rights relating (in whole or in part) to Hashing Power.

11. Right of withdrawal for Consumer Users

If the User qualifies as a "consumer" under the law applicable to it (the "Consumer User"), the Consumer User shall have the right to withdraw from the General Terms and Conditions, without charge or penalty, without specifying the reason, within 14 days after signing the Contract.

To exercise the right of withdrawal, the Consumer User must inform Swag of the exercise of this right by a specific statement (e.g., letter sent by mail or e-mail) regarding the decision to withdraw from the General Terms and Conditions to the following addresses:

Swag OÜ

Tartu Mnt 14 IV floor, 10117 Tallinn, Estonia

E-mail: support@swagyourlife.com

For this purpose, the Consumer User may use the following withdrawal form template. The Consumer User may withdraw from the General Terms and Conditions by using the following form, which must be completed in its entirety and submitted to the e-mail address support@swagyourlife.com before the expiration of the withdrawal period:

12. Termination of the Contract and penalty

The Company may terminate the Contract by transmission to the User of email or registered letter with return receipt anticipated by email to the address indicated by the User during the procedure of proper identification of the User, in case of:

- (a) Violation of the prohibition of assignment of the Contract, as provided under Article 10 of the Contract;
- (b) Failure to comply with and/or violation of the warranty and indemnity provisions of Article 14 of the Contract;
- (c) Violation of the obligations under Article 16 of the Contract;
- (d) Breach of the obligation of confidentiality of Confidential Information, as provided under Article 18 of the Contract;
- (e) Force Majeure event whose effects on the Company persist for a period of more than three months;
- (f) within one month from the date of signing the Contract, failure of the User to complete and/or incorrectly carry out the customer identification procedure adopted by the Company.

The termination of the Contract in the aforementioned cases of termination shall be effective from the date of receipt by the User of the notice of termination transmitted by the Company pursuant to this Article.

In the event of termination of the Contract pursuant to the foregoing subparagraph (f), the User shall be entitled to the return of the Consideration reduced by a percentage equal to 3% of the Consideration owed by the User to the Company as penalty. The User agrees and acknowledges that the aforesaid penalty amount is fair and non-reducible, and hereby waives any and all actions, exceptions or claims to obtain its reduction.

13. Withdrawal of the Company

The Company may terminate the Contract by sending written notice, sent by registered letter with return receipt or by email, which must be received by the User at least 15 (fifteen) days before the effective date of the notice of termination.

In this case, the User shall not be entitled to any refund of the Consideration and any consideration paid to the Company under the Agreement prior to the effective date of the withdrawal.

14. Warranties and Indemnities

14.1. User Guarantees

The User represents and warrants that through the Assignment it intends to make the Mining Accreditation solely on its own behalf, at its own risk and solely for its own benefit. The User also agrees to transmit and provide Swag with the information requested by Swag from time to time in order to properly fulfill its AML/CFT obligations.

14.2. Guarantee on the risks associated with Mining

By signing the Agreement, you acknowledge, represent and warrant that you have sufficient technical information and understand the risks associated with BTC Mining and Extraction. You further acknowledge, represent and warrant that you have made an independent decision based on the information available to you after duly reviewing the section <https://www.swagyourlife.com/comunicati-autorita-di-vigilanza-riferimenti-normativi/>.

14.3. Prohibition of Denigration

Until the Contract Term and for a period of 12 months thereafter, the User agrees not to take any action that is intended to harm Swag as well as its reputation. Such actions include but are not limited to disparaging remarks, statements questioning the character, honesty, integrity, morality, or image of Swag in relation to any aspect of the operation of its business. The obligations of this article extend to shareholders, directors, employees, representatives of Swag. For violation of the prohibition of disparagement, the User shall be liable to pay in favor of Swag a penalty of €10,000.00 (ten thousand/00 euros), without prejudice to compensation for greater damages. The User expressly acknowledges the fairness and adequacy of the amount of the penalty, waiving as of now any action, exception or claim aimed at obtaining its reduction.

14.4. Usage Restrictions

User agrees not to use the content or information provided by Swag under this Agreement to conduct business or activity or solicit the performance of any activity for illegal, fraudulent, unauthorized or improper purposes. User agrees to comply with all applicable constitutions, laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, statutes, or treaties, orders, decisions, instructions, requirements, directives, or requests of any court, regulatory body, or other governmental authority in connection with the use of the Rental Services.

14.5. Additional Guarantees

You warrant and represent (i) that you will use the Hashing Power solely in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations; (ii) that you are neither a director, agent, employee currently subject to sanction by OFAC, EEAS or OFSI; (iii) not to directly or indirectly use the Hashing Power, or lend, contribute, or otherwise make available the Hashing Power to any subsidiary, joint venture partner, or other person or entity, for the purpose of financing the activities of any person currently subject to U.S., U.K., or EU sanctions; (iv) not to sublease or resell or lease the Hashing Power to any person or entity subject to sanctions by OFAC, EEAS, or OFSI.

14.6. Exclusion of warranty

Swag makes no warranties of any kind, either express or implied, including through its shareholders, directors, officers, employees and representatives, as to merchantability, fitness of the service for a particular purpose, uninterrupted or error-free access, accuracy, reliability, capacity or security, freedom from delay, or failure to the fullest extent permitted by law. In no event shall Swag be liable for any unauthorized use of the service.

14.7. Limitation of liability

Swag is not and cannot be held liable to the User for:

- (a) direct, indirect, consequential, incidental, punitive, or special damages (including damages for loss of BTC Extraction, interruption of services, loss of information, errors or failures resulting from hardware or software malfunctions, operational blockage, damage, theft, and/or other tortious acts) attributable to the negligent conduct of Mining Pools or third parties;
- (b) Damages resulting from the User's failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the Contract;
- (c) damages resulting from any act or omission of any person acting not directly under the control of Swag;
- (d) Damage resulting from unauthorized access to the Swaggy Wallet or User Wallet;
- (e) damage resulting from a change in regulations or operating rules as well as in the value of BTC;
- (f) Damages resulting from the User's failure to declare for tax purposes;
- (g) Damages resulting from the failure and/or incomplete transmission of the Transfer Request;
- (h) Damages resulting from the use and/or non-use of SWA Tokens and HLT Tokens.

Swag shall also not be liable for any failure or delay in the performance of any of its obligations under this Contract caused by a Force Majeure Event.

14.8. Manleva

The User agrees to hold Swag and each shareholder, director, employee, and representative harmless and indemnified from any and all damages, burdens, costs, and/or expenses that may arise from litigation, administrative proceedings, or out-of-court disputes of any nature whatsoever, actions or claims brought by any interested party and/or any other person and/or Authority as a result of any non-compliance and/or in breach of the obligations undertaken under the Agreement or arising from illegal use, negligence, non-compliance with applicable legislation or misuse of the Mining and BTCs by the User himself and/or his assignees and/or third parties.

15. Communications

All written communications between the Parties, required or permitted under the Contract, unless individual clauses provide for specific modes of transmission, shall be deemed validly made where transmitted to the following addresses:

for Swag: e-mail support@swagyourlife.com;

for the User: refer to the references provided during registration by the User on domains owned by Swag.

16. Obligations of the User

The User agrees to comply with all obligations regarding the traceability of financial flows within its competence in accordance with the regulations applicable to it.

To this end, the User agrees to notify Swag of each digital wallet in its possession by transmitting communication to the Company aimed at indicating the public key of said digital wallets.

The User represents and warrants to indemnify as well as indemnify and/or hold harmless the Company from any liability and/or prejudice and/or claim of any third party directly or indirectly related to and/or resulting from the User's breach of the obligation set forth in this Article.

17. Processing of personal data

Pursuant to the European Regulation No. 679/2016 (hereinafter "Regulation"), the User is informed that Swag acts as the Data Controller for the execution of the provisions of the Contract. The Parties acknowledge that the Contract has been executed, subject to the User's acceptance of the Privacy Policy.

The User assumes responsibility for the truthfulness and accuracy of personal data entered on sites or domains owned by Swag.

18. Confidentiality

18.1. Scope of the duty of confidentiality

The User agrees to keep the contents of this Agreement strictly confidential and to use them solely for the purpose of its execution. The User also undertakes to keep strictly confidential the information received from Swag concerning the Miner and/or the Hashing Power and/or the Digital Product, their functional and/or operational characteristics as well as the commercial projects related to them.

18.2. Definition of confidential information

Confidential information means all news, knowledge, data, models, designs, prototypes, know-how, products technical and computer systems, acts, documents and any other information, of whatever kind and nature and without any limitation pertaining to the type of material medium, that the Company will disclose to the User (hereinafter "Confidential Information").

18.3. User's confidentiality obligations in relation to Confidential Information

In relation to Confidential Information, the User agrees:

- (a) To take all necessary and appropriate measures in order to maintain and not adversely affect the confidentiality of Confidential Information of which it will become aware;
- (b) not to disclose/transmit/disclose/communicate in any way to third parties-including any related/affiliated/affiliated/controlling legal entities-the Confidential Information;
- (c) To refrain from publishing Confidential Information in any way and in any capacity;
- (d) Not to copy and/or reproduce Confidential Information without prior written consent of the Company's Legal Representative;
- (e) to use the Confidential Information solely to assess its interest in entering into this Contract, to the exclusion of any other and different use;
- (f) to notify Swag without delay in writing and by certified electronic mail of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information of which it becomes aware and to work by all means to bring about the cessation of the unlawful conduct as soon as possible;

- (g) To communicate in advance by certified e-mail, any circumstances under which they detect risks to the protection of the confidentiality of Confidential Information;
- (h) Not to engage, by virtue of and as a result of the Confidential Information received, in acts or conduct likely to generate to Swag's detriment diversion or hoarding of customers;
- (i) To not directly or indirectly use Confidential Information received from Swag in competition with it.

18.4. Exclusions

In connection with this obligation of confidentiality, it is understood that Confidential Information does not include information:

- (a) which, at the time they are communicated to the User, are already in the public domain, or become so for reasons that have nothing to do with a breach by the User of the obligations specified in this Agreement;
- (b) of which the User proves to be in possession already before the date of signing this Contract;
- (c) which shall be excluded by Swag in advance from the application of the secrecy constraints set forth in this Contract, by written notice signed by its legal representative;
- (d) that must be disclosed by order of the Judicial Authority; in such case, however, it will be the User's responsibility to inform the Company in advance of the request received, so that Swag can consider whether an opposition action is appropriate.

18.5. Liability and burden of proof in case of breach of confidentiality obligation

The User shall be liable in the event of a breach of the confidentiality obligations set forth in this Article; as well as agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless for any direct and/or indirect damages as well as expenses that Swag may incur as a result of a breach of the confidentiality obligations set forth in this Article.

In the event of litigation arising from the alleged violation of the obligations of confidentiality referred to in this article, the User acknowledges and accepts that the Company is as of now dispensed from the burden of providing evidence about the intentional or negligent act of the User and the imputability to the latter of the damage suffered; in the event, therefore, it will be the User who will have to exclude, if the conditions are met, its responsibility, demonstrating, among other things, the traceability of the damage to a fact not attributable to itself.

18.6. Prohibition on Reproduction of Confidential Information and Burden of Return/Destruction

All Confidential Information, in whatever form, is and remains the exclusive property of the Company.

The User shall not under any circumstances copy/reproduce the Confidential Information without prior written consent of the Company's legal representative, and if such consent is given, the copies/reproductions shall be marked with information pertaining to the relevant confidentiality and ownership.

Any copy/reproduction of the Confidential Information that Swag has permitted the User to make in the manner described herein shall nevertheless be deemed the exclusive property of the Company and shall be returned or destroyed to the Company, at Swag's option upon the occurrence of the first of the following events:

- (a) term of permitted use;
- (b) Upon simple written request.

The return or destruction of Confidential Information shall take place no later than 5 days after the aforementioned request or the end of the permitted use.

19. Applicable law and jurisdiction

These General Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Estonian law to the exclusion of the application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.

In relation to Consumer Users, any dispute arising out of or in connection with these General Terms and Conditions (whether contractual or non-contractual) shall be subject to Estonian jurisdiction. This is without prejudice to the application to Consumer Users who do not ordinarily reside in Estonia of provisions that may be more favorable and mandatory as provided by the law of the country where the Consumer User resides, in particular in relation to the time limit for exercising the right of withdrawal. In the event that such rights are exercised, the manner and formalities for communicating the exercise of such rights shall be provided under the law of the Consumer User's residence.

Unless otherwise provided by law applicable to the Consumer User, for any dispute relating to the application, execution and interpretation of these General Terms and Conditions, the place of jurisdiction shall be the place where the Consumer User resides or has elected domicile (if in Estonia). Otherwise, the Court of Harju shall have jurisdiction.

The User Consumer residing in a member state of the European Union other than Estonia may also have access, for any dispute relating to the application, execution and interpretation of these General Terms and Conditions, to the European Small Claims Procedure, provided for in Regulation (EC) No. 861/2007 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 July 2007, provided that the value of the dispute does not exceed, excluding interest, fees and expenses, Euro 2,000.00.

Swag informs Consumer Users that a European platform for online consumer dispute resolution (so-called "ODR Platform") has been established. The ODR Platform can be accessed at the following link: ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr. Through the ODR Platform, the Consumer User will be able to browse the list of ADR entities (e.g., alternative dispute resolution bodies such as mediation, arbitration, and other forms of dispute resolution bodies) and initiate an online dispute resolution procedure for the dispute in which he or she is involved.

This is without prejudice to the right of the Consumer User to bring the matter before the ordinary courts of competent jurisdiction, as well as the possibility, where applicable, to promote an out-of-court settlement of disputes relating to consumer relations through recourse to the applicable procedures provided for in its jurisdiction (if applicable).

20. Final Provisions

20.1. Repeal of previous understandings between the Parties

The Contract abrogates and supersedes any previous agreement, written or verbal, made between the Parties on the subject matter of the Contract.

20.2. Changes in contract terms and conditions

Any variations to these General Conditions must be the subject, under penalty of nullity, of a specific written agreement between the Parties.

Should some clauses of the Contract or parts thereof be null and void and/or invalid, this fact will not affect the validity of the remaining clauses and/or parts, which will therefore remain fully valid and effective.

20.3. Swag Tolerance

Any forbearance on the part of the Company with respect to conduct of the User engaged in in violation of the provisions of the Contract shall not constitute a waiver of the rights arising out of the violated provisions nor of the right to require the exact performance of all obligations and compliance with all terms and conditions provided under the Contract.
